

Master of Social Work (MSW)

Master of Social Work is a Post graduate programme in social work initiated by Rajagiri School of Social Work in the year 1961, which was the pioneering Masters programme in Social Work in Kerala.

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT AND TECHNOLOGY (INMT) offers MSW is a two year full time degree programme consisting of four semesters offered in two-aided batches.

MSW programme through the education of social work values, principles and methods empowers students to adopt strategies and interventions to bring changes in the life of people. This programme fosters knowledge, skills and attitude of learners for delivering human services through widening the horizons of perspectives with a global standard. The curriculum of the programme offers a splendid blending of theoretical knowledge, field practicum, research, conferences and seminars.

MSW programme is envisaged to mould socially committed and professionally competent young social workers to contribute towards the social development of the country. Specializations are offered in Community Development, Family and Child Welfare and Medical and Psychiatric Social Work.

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS

- Developing an ambience for self-learning which is characterised by freedom, openness, approachability, flexibility, collaboration & participation, and mutual trust & respect;
- Providing necessary theoretical inputs on the philosophy, values, methods, fields and the approaches of human service profession and human resource management;
- Providing avenues for experiential learning for growing in social awareness and sensitivity towards social issues;

- Promoting insight into one's personal (own) self and the purpose of professional self in the helping profession;
- Fostering the development of proficiency in helping and managerial (human management) skills, and effective intervention strategies.
- Helping to sharpen the skills in conceptualization, analysis and interpretation.

WHY CHOOSE MSW?

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT AND TECHNOLOGY (INMT) offers Master of Social Work (MSW) is a two-year master's course that focuses on preparing professionals to engage in social, economic, and environmental development. The course will equip students to proactively engage with people, their psychosocial challenges, and their well-being. The program imparts knowledge and training in assessment, intervention, and evaluations of individuals, families, communities, organizations, and the society at large. Candidates who aspire to give back to society and are passionate about the welfare of human beings can choose MSW to better learn about how to impart the full benefits offered by the system to those in need. Students can hold responsible positions in the community to bring about real changes that uplift the standard of living in our society.

WHAT DOES AN MSW GRADUATE DO?

After successful completion of the two-year master's course, INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT AND TECHNOLOGY (INMT) provides students have a wide range of opportunities to work both in the government and private sectors. They can opt for careers in government departments and ministries like the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Ministry of Social Justice, Ministry of Women & Child Affairs, etc. Besides, they can find attractive job opportunities in the hospital sector as well as in the Human Resource. Those who wish to be of service to the underprivileged can join recognized NGOs and other Non-profit organizations that visit underdeveloped rural areas across the country to improve the quality of life.

REASONS WHY MSW CAN FETCH YOU A REWARDING CAREER?

Social work is a very rewarding yet emotionally difficult career option. Professionals join difficult work settings to assist individuals experiencing tough challenges, and they frequently find themselves assisting with crisis circumstances such as mental health or abuse problems. International NGOs and organizations such as UNESCO, UNICEF, and WHO give their social workers better wages and benefits. Salaries at non-governmental organizations (NGOs) are partly determined by their financial means, and many international organizations pay generously. In India, the average income for a Social Worker is between INR 2 and 3 lac per year. You may anticipate higher income as you get more experience and responsibility.

CAREERS

Graduates of social work studies usually get careers opportunities such as community development professionals, project officers, probation officers, medical social workers, Psychiatric Social Workers, school social workers, advice workers, careers advisers, charity officers, volunteer coordinators, social policy analysts, counselors, Field Investigator, Documentation and Communication Officer, Professor/Lecturer among many others in India. Learning MSW from INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT AND TECHNOLOGY will put you in the top percentile of students who graduate every year. Our placement opportunities and faculty members are highly sought after in Bhubaneswar. Talk to our expert career guidance counselor to understand more about the prospects of the course.